

November 2011: Kathmandu, Nepal

Fluorescent Higher Secondary School

School visits and feedback to the teachers

Three workshops for kindergarten teachers and primary school teachers (DF)

Five workshops for teachers and the governing body of the secondary school (UF)

- Theory and practical training of the Montessori methodology and production of teaching material
- Pedagogical basics, teaching methodology and lesson planning and "Classroom management"
- Asking questions according to Bloom's Taxonomy, motivation, teaching goals
- School development and quality management; Switzerland and its system of education

"Morning assembly" of the older students ...

... and the younger ones.

The participants are very interested and eager to learn.

The most important part of the course are the certificates. final speech of the headmaster

