

November/December 2018

Emmanuel English Boarding School, Dhulikhel

In three workshops a week we tried to raise the very low level of teaching a little. The lack of English language skills of many teachers, especially at the lower level, made the undertaking difficult.

Morning Assembly with a lot of patriotism!

... and then the place is wiped.

Compulsary dance lessons for all

... and flute lessons in primary school, even if the fingers are still too small.

The new Volleyball field

The School Buildings for upper and lower classes